

Captain Kidd

Long ago, there lived a pirate called Captain Kidd. He sailed the sea in his grand pirate ship. He went to lots of places far away. But on his trips he did many bad things. He killed people and stole their treasure.

One day, he went to an island in Japan called 'Treasure Island'. The people who lived there would not give up their food or their cattle. There was a big fight. Captain Kidd's pirates killed all the people on the island. Then, Kidd hid some of his treasure in a cave.

Captain Kidd was caught and he was hanged. He was lucky the first time – the hangman's rope broke. But it did not break the second time. Captain Kidd was dead.

Many people looked for Captain Kidd's treasure. It was never found.

Is it still on the island? Nobody knows!
