

oi

Action: Cup your hands around your mouth and pretend to shout at a passing boat, saying oi, ship ahoy!

oi

Cup your hands around your mouth as if you are hailing a passing boat.

Roy's dad has a little boat, called Sailor Boy. Sometimes, in the summer, Roy is allowed to join in and help his dad on the boat. One morning, Roy, his dad and Uncle Martin are taking the boat out. They pack all the things aboard and set off. They are really enjoying themselves, when BANG! There is a loud noise as they hit something in the water. It is an oil drum. "Oh dear," says Dad. "It's made a hole." Just then, they see a ship, steaming along. "Quick," says Dad, pointing at the ship. "We'll shout for help." "Oi, oi, ship ahoy!" The sailors from the ship hear their voices and yell back, "oi, ship ahoy, are you in trouble?" "Yes, we're sinking. Help!" they cry. The sailors help Roy and his dad get the boat back to port.

Can you find anything beginning with oi in the picture?

Our new letter sound for this week is the oi sound. Go through the name, sound and action for this letter. Children can also think of words where they hear the oi sound in them. See can your child sound out these words soil, joint, point, void.

Action:

Cup your hands around your mouth and pretend to shout at a passing boat, saying oi, ship ahoy!

Please complete p. 37 of the grey jolly phonics pupil book 1, otherwise write the above oi words on a piece of paper with pictures to match.

CLICK HERE for the oi video.